Reviewer guide: Part B

Open this only after you have returned Part A. Your Part A answers stand as you returned them, and Part B does not change them.

What Part B asks

- Part B lists changes proposed for some outcomes of the cases you judged in Part A. They were generated automatically by the syllabus-checking software while it was being tested.
- They are in no particular order, and identical proposals are shown once. None of them is endorsed by anyone. Judge each on its merits.
- Some proposals rewrite an outcome. Others keep the outcome's text and map it, or link it, to a different outcome without saying which.

What you receive

- This guide.
- Your course's Part B form, as a Word document you can fill in and as a PDF you can print, with a response sheet (CSV).
- Use the curriculum and institutional references you received with Part A. The status labels have the same meaning here. No text in this package has been confirmed by the institution.

Rating a proposal

A proposed rewrite. Choose one:

- Appropriate as written.
- Acceptable with edits: suggest the edit.
- Not appropriate.
- Cannot judge: then say why.

A proposed re-mapping. Choose one:

- Appropriate.
- Appropriate only if a suitable outcome is named: name it if you can.
- Not appropriate.
- Cannot judge: then say why.

Cannot judge. If a proposal is outside your expertise, or the information given is not enough to judge it, tick Cannot judge and the reason. A proposal you cannot judge is not counted as a rating.

Concerns. Tick any that apply, or "No concerns".

Naming an outcome. Quote enough of its words to identify it, from the outcomes listed under Course context or, for program outcomes, from your program's own outcomes. Write "none suitable" if none fits.

Returning your form

- In Word, tick the boxes and type in the grey fields. On paper, print the PDF and write by hand. In the response sheet, write one row per proposal, using the words of the form's options.
- Write the same reviewer code as in Part A, and the date you returned Part A.
- Return the form to the coordinator by the agreed date.

Time

As a rough guide, allow one to two minutes for each proposal.
